

July 2015

Dear Friends of the Feldman:

Welcome to our 2015 Season, the Feldman's 70th! First off, I'd like to thank you for your terrific support last year, my first as your President. What a great season of music – from Carpe Diem's original piece to an exquisite Ravel performance by the young French group Hermes to our rather exciting impromptu concert from the Vienna Piano Trio, I hope you found last season as memorable and enjoyable as I did.

Our Artistic Committee has been working hard to put the final touches on this year's programs; what we do know are our Artists and their dates, which follow. Please NOTE all concerts now begin at 7:30pm, which is one half-hour earlier than our traditional start time. (Light refreshments are still at 6:30pm, and Dwight Davis will provide a pre-concert lecture from 7:00 to 7:25pm.) Also, please NOTE, Concerts 1, 3, and 5 will be at St Patrick Catholic School, and Concerts 2, 4, and 6 will be held at the Kaufmann Theater in the Chrysler Museum of Art.

Please return the enclosed subscription form and we'll get your season tickets to you right away. As you know, ticket and subscription income cover less than half of the cost of this wonderful live music, so I would ask you to please consider making a thoughtful contribution with your order to help us continue our tradition of quality. Additionally, please tell a friend about the Feldman. We will provide a complimentary ticket with your order so that you can help spread the word!

In closing, I'd like to again thank you for being a part of the Feldman – without you, there would be no music. My fellow Board Members and I look forward to seeing you in the fall!

All the best,

Pete Morford
